

David Nemeroff, Soke-Dai
Martial Artist. Author. Healer. Instructor.
www.Aikido-Dojo.com

About David Nemeroff, Soke-Dai

David Nemeroff originally hails from New York and currently resides in the Lehigh Valley near Allentown, PA. He began his martial arts journey at the age of seven and became more serious about his training at the age of twelve when he started training in the art of Aikido. In order to complement his aikido regiment and become a more complete martial artist, Nemeroff trains in other martial arts such as jujutsu, kempo, iaijutsu and kenjutsu (samurai sword), kobudo (weapons), aikijutsu and others.

Professional Achievements:

---

- Director and chief instructor of Aikido Masters Self-Defense Academy
- B.S. degree in fine arts with a graphic design specialization - Hofstra University.
- Black Belts in 13 different martial styles including Aikido, Aikijutsu, Jujutsu, Samurai Sword, 4' Staff, Okinawan Weapons, Kempo and others
- Defensive Tactics Instructor certified by the U.S. Specialized Law Enforcement Training Commission and PA state police
- Inducted into the Martial Arts Hall of Honors seven years in a row
- 4-time published author
- licensed massage therapist specializing in craniosacral therapy
- training in various qigong systems and a professional member of the National Qigong Association.

Nemeroff has taught martial arts to people of all walks of life including law enforcement; military, corporations such as Air Products, St. Lukes Hospital, Penn State University and Mack Trucks; as well as children's organizations like the Boys and Girls Club of Allentown, Camelot for Children, and Kid's Peace. He has taught kempo and qigong to cancer survivors at the Cancer Support Community (a national non-profit organization). Currently, he has developed and implemented a martial arts program called the Kids Karate Project, which is specifically designed to help children afflicted with cancer and other special needs. Nemeroff has been featured on TV shows like the channel 69 news, TV-2 Sports Scene, Martial Arts TV online and various radio shows both nationally and internationally. He has also been in Aikido Today magazine, as well as other publications. He has also been in other books such as "Mastering the Samurai Sword" and "Aiki-Jujutsu: Mixed Martial Art Of The Samurai."

